Cuisine	Showcasing the signature big, bold Italian flavors from Chef Chiarello with a more refined twist, Bottega's menu highlights the bounty of artisanally produced as well as house made ingredients.
Signature Dishes	Polenta Under Glass with Caramelized Wild Mushrooms, Balsamic Game Sauce ($12); Wood Grilled Octopus Olive Oil Braised Potatoes, Pickled Red Onion, Salsa Verde ($14); Goats' Milk Braised Lamb Shank with Garlic, Fennel, Sweet Onions, Carrot Caponata ($26).
Wine/Bar	Mainly local, small-production vintages from California complement a solid collection of Italian wines. All are reasonably priced to encourage tastings. Approx. 22 different Quartinos of wine (1 1/2 glass) are offered. Full bar selections include specialty drinks served with perfectly paired bites.
Location	Bottega is located in the historic V Marketplace, the site of one of the oldest wineries in Napa Valley and the original Chutney Kitchen. NapaStyle, Chiarello's flagship retail store is located across the courtyard. www.napastyle.com/
Design	The interior, designed by Michael Guthrie in collaboration with Eileen Gordon, reflects the restaurant's menu celebrating both the rustic and the refined. Olive greens, chocolate browns and deep reds create a warm palette. Design elements include distressed leathers in butter, Venetian plaster, imported Murano glass chandeliers and Donghia fabric.

Layout	There are two indoor dining rooms with a private dining/wine room and bar, three communal tables made of either forty year-old timbers, Calcutta d'Oro marble or recycled concrete. The outside covered Terrazzo has two wood-burning stone fireplaces, with both lounge and table seating.
