Private Dining & Special Events

Bottega means “workshop,” a place where we can showcase signature bold Italian flavors with a refined twist. Bottega’s menu highlights the bounty of artisanal and house made ingredients, as well as local produce. Bottega is part of the historic Vintage Estates, located in one of the oldest wineries in the Napa Valley, and is open for lunch, dinner and after dinner.

Cooking and living in the Napa Valley for over 20 years, I have had the pleasure of creating special menus and moments for my friends. I am honored to have the opportunity to create a special event for you.

Bottega has group/private dining for groups of 12 to 120.

We look forward to seeing you and throwing your party and special event!

A toast to you and the memories made around the table.

Salute,

Michael Chiarello

Estate Wines from Michael Chiarello & Thomas Brown

The Saint Helena vineyards surrounding my home date back to early 1900's and from them, I've been fortunate to craft highly-rated estate grown wines since 1998. After tending these historic vines back to life, my team of Amigo Bob Cantisano - organic viticultural legend - and famed winemaker Thomas Rivers Brown began making Chiarello Vineyards wines. At around 2,000 cases annually, our estate wines are among the rarest productions in the Napa Valley, and it is our honor to share them with you.

Surrounding the "old vines," we have Zinfandel and two Cabernet Sauvignon vineyards, and as they matured and the ecosystem balanced out with our sustainable farming practices, our wines have taken their place among Napa Valley's many great wines. Perhaps more importantly to me, though, is that each wine we make carries the story of my family. As we preserve our soils, we preserve our heritage. Taste my family's story in every glass.

Salute ~ Michael Chiarello

Thomas Brown, Winemaker of the Year (Food & Wine Magazine, 2010), is a very successful winemaker and most importantly, my friend. Producing iconic wines such as Schrader Cellars, Chiarello, Casa Piena, Outpost and his own Rivers-Marie, he has yielded several 100-point wines.

"Thomas Rivers Brown is the nation's hottest winemaker."

- David White, The Terroirist Wine Blog

"The Eileen Cabernet Sauvignon is racy, with focus and length...these are decidedly flashy, ripe Cabernets."

Chiarello Family Vineyards

Giana Zinfandel 2016 / Bottle $55

Named after my youngest daughter, Giana, and farmed like a cabernet for high quality not high yield. Dark purple with flavors of cherries, raspberries, wild mint, vanilla bean, honeysuckle and bittersweet chocolate, this wine is full and rich upfront, and buffered on the back by a firm natural acidity. Zinfandel is my favorite food varietal, so I drink Giana Zin with everything from red-sauce pastas to grilled meats & smoky BBQ, and occasionally, all by itself!

Bambino e Mamma Cabernet Sauvignon 2016 / Bottle $85

2013 is the inaugural vintage of Bambino e Mamma, a blend of the two Cabernet Sauvignon Vineyards on our St.Helena property. Until now we have separated the two vineyards into our two distinct Cabernets, Bambino and Eileen, named for my wife and our son Aidan. Beginning with this vintage we are blending the two together to create this wine, the Bambino e Mamma is a blend in styles of the Bambino and the Eileen wines.

Roux Old Vine Petite Sirah 2015 / Bottle $75

Roux is the nickname of my oldest daughter, Margaux, and this wine is my meditation to our relationship. This 96 year old, dry farmed, vineyard produces a ridiculously small crop of 100 cases off of 4 acres. This is my favorite wine for "big red" meals. This is Petite Sirah for both fans of the varietal and skeptics. The density of the wine will appeal to proponents of big red wines but without any of the rough edges that can turn people off to Petite Sirah. Roux offers trademark dark, saturated purple color. The nose possesses a good amount of lavender with menthol undertones. This is my cellar favorite, and wonderful partner to long braised meats.
